Data Protection Statement

All personal information provided by you and any other information relating to your account(s) will be treated in confidence and will not be disclosed to any third parties, except where permitted by law, or in furtherance of your finance application with prospective lending institutions. However, information may be shared with other financial organisations to protect both ourselves and our customers against fraud. The information will be held in our computer system and may be used in the following ways:

- The information will assist us in providing the service for which you have applied.
- To keep you informed of other services which may be of interest to you. If you would prefer not to receive marketing information, please write and advise us.
- Where a lending decision is involved, the information will aid us in assessing the extent of the credit we will offer to you. In taking credit decisions, the Bank seeks to protect applicants from the dangers of over-commitment. Credit scoring may be used for credit assessment.
- Enquiries may be made with credit reference agencies and in such cases the agencies will keep a record of our enquiries. We will disclose to the agencies information about you in the event of you defaulting on a debt. All information received and recorded by credit reference agencies may be used by other lenders in making credit decisions about you and other members of your household.

These uses of your personal information are covered by our registration under the Data Protection Act. Under the terms of the Act, you have the right to obtain a copy of the information we hold about you, upon payment of the appropriate fee.
